SOCIALS: Facebook / Soundcloud / Spotify

Cassettes For Kids, a producer and DJ. The young local's stock continues to rise both locally and abroad. Local music media outlet Finding Figaro's feedback on Cassettes For Kids is both a testament to his growth so far and what's to come, quote: "we're tipping him for Australia's electronic breakthrough artist of 2019."

During his infancy period of Djing, he was predominantly found in smaller Melbourne clubs giving him the experience required to delve into a range of genres. Nowadays, you can expect high energy house and disco, belting percussion with a hint of garage and a hint of electro, just for fun.

Cassettes For Kids has a number of shows under his belt such as Pitch Music and Arts, Lost Paradise, Wool Store Warehouse, Duke Street Block Party as well as headlining Australia's best clubs - XE54 & Civic Underground. Always a trusted selector, he has warmed dancefloors for the likes of Denis Sulta, DJ Koze, KiNK, ANNA and many more.

"My first venture to the Dance Tent was in anticipation of Melbourne's rapidly-rising Cassettes for Kids. I think most people walking away from this set would coin him the surprise package of the festival – a disco-focused performance worthy of any festival's sunset-slot. A memorable moment was the track 'I Still Want You' by Mange Le Funk, before finishing his set off with the powerful vocals of Jasper Street Co.'s 'Reach'. Expecting a huge spike in interest in 2019."
