

Dirty Audio

Los Angeles DJ/Producer Dirty Audio has been lighting up the Electronic scene over the last few years, from his music racking up tens of millions of plays to him touring across the world. But things really took off for Dirty Audio in 2016 with his colossal release of "Gettin' That", which turned into one of the most played tracks of the year by DJs, supported by everyone from Jack U to Chainsmokers. Label releases included, Mad Decent, Dim Mak, Monstercat, Panda Funk, and Good Enuff. He's done official remixes for The Chainsmokers, DJ Snake, Steve Aoki, Afrojack, Deorro, Bro Safari, and Nervo to name a few. And it hasn't just been DJs and fans that have jumped on board with Dirty Audio, but critics as well. As YourEDM phrased it, "It's safe to say that LA's Dirty Audio has officially surpassed his 'come up' and has stepped out from behind the curtain as a major player." And with this talented musician now front and center, there's no telling what Dirty Audio has up his sleeve next.
